Dear Hiring Manager,

My name is Chenyu Yang. I am a senior majoring in Computer Science at San Jose State University. I am adept in multiple coding languages as well as written languages including Chinese and English. With my experience in a variety of languages, I think I will be an excellent candidate for this position. I look forward to bringing my programming language skills and other group work skills to work in your software engineering company group.

I am always prepared and fully participate in work activities. In work or study, I manage to solve coding problems in different ways, and I am willing to try various approaches. During team discussions, I do not hesitate to ask any questions. I love to work with other teammates and we help each other understand the concepts, so we can complete challenging programming projects. Currently, I am a Computer Science Course Teaching Assistant at San Jose State University. With this position, I have learned both communication skills and how to be more punctual and timely. Additionally, I also know how to check and debug the project works which will be helpful in creating effective programs.

I am highly motivated to dedicate my time to my work. I hope can bring my problem-solving abilities and group work experience to develop and improve testing technologies with your company team. My classes, work experience, and extracurricular activities make me an ideal candidate for this position. After 4 years of main course work, my school GPA is 3.63/4.00. I also have won the SJSU President's Scholar Award in the 2020 Spring Semester.

With my experience in the software field, I am fluent in Java, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and Android Studio. This experience has allowed me to build and design two website projects. I hope these skills will contribute to creating advanced projects for your company. The Company will help me develop a variety of my own skills. I hope I can improve my skills in your company and make a difference in the future of computer science life.

My attached resume expands on my skill-sets and accomplishments. Thank you for your time and consideration, and I look forward to hearing from you soon. My phone number is (925) 963-3323, and my email address is cyang990518@gmail.com / chenyu.yang@sjsu.edu.

Sincerely,

Chenyu Yang
